AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF
AN APPLICATION FOR A SEARCH WARRANT

I, Mary Davidson, being first duly sworn on oath, on information and belief state:

I. INTRODUCTION, BACKGROUND, TRAINING, AND EXPERIENCE:

1. I make this affidavit in support of an application for a search warrant for information associated with one Facebook user ID that is stored at premises owned, maintained, controlled, or operated by Facebook, a social networking company headquartered in Menlo Park, California. The information to be searched is described in the following paragraphs and in Attachment A. This affidavit is made in support of an application for a search warrant under 18 U.S.C. §§ 2703(a), 2703(b)(1)(A) and 2703(c)(1)(A) to require Facebook to disclose to the government records and other information in its possession, pertaining to the subscriber or customer associated with the user ID.

2. I am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and have been since May 2019. Since October 2019, I have been assigned to FBI's Milwaukee Area Violent Crimes Task Force, a multi-jurisdictional law enforcement entity charged with investigating violations of federal law, including bank robberies, commercial robberies, armed motor vehicle robberies, and other violent crime matters, defined under Title 18 of the United States Code. I have been trained in a variety of investigative and legal matters, including the topics of Fourth Amendment searches, the drafting of search warrant affidavits, and probable cause. I have participated in criminal investigations, surveillance, search warrants, cellular telephone extractions, interviews, and debriefs of arrested subjects. As a result of this training and investigative experience, I have learned how and why violent actors typically conduct various aspects of their criminal activities.

3. During the course of my career, I have had trainings regarding the use of social media in relation to criminal investigations. Specifically, I have received instruction regarding the use of social media sites by criminal elements. Additionally, I have conducted previous criminal investigations in which internet research that I conducted yielded the use of social media by suspects. Specifically, I know from my training and experience that alleged suspects of criminal activity, who have accounts on social media websites, will often communicate their criminal intentions or past activity via “instant message” or “in-box message” on a given social media website. The “instant message” / “in-box message” is a private communication from one user to another. Furthermore, I know through experience that many social media users often use social media websites as their primary means to communicate with others. Additionally, I know from training and experience that suspects who use social media websites sometimes post photographs of themselves possessing incriminating items, such as large amounts of cash, narcotics, and firearms. Also, suspects in criminal investigations have been known to post statements on social websites referencing their own criminal activity.

4. Based on the investigation to date, I submit that there is probable cause to believe that on September 8, 2020, CALVIN A. SMITH (SMITH) (Date of Birth (DOB): XX/XX/2002) and MADISON G. TYLER (TYLER) (DOB: XX/XX/2001) engaged in the motor vehicle robbery (carjacking) of J. J. (DOB: XX/XX/1962) in her underground parking garage located at 11907 W. Appleton Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53224. This offense is in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2119(1) (Motor Vehicle Robbery).

5. I further submit that there is probable cause to believe that on September 13, 2020, SMITH, TYLER, and ANDREW D. SEELYE (SEELYE) (DOB: XX/XX/2001), engaged in the motor vehicle robbery (carjacking) of A.T. (DOB: XX/XX/1941) in the parking lot of 11927 W.

Appleton Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53224. This offense is in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2119(1) (Motor Vehicle Robbery).

6. I further submit that there is probable cause to believe that on September 14, 2020, SMITH, TYLER, and SEELYE, engaged in an attempted motor vehicle robbery (carjacking) at 10:39 AM, an attempted motor vehicle theft at 11:05 AM, and a completed motor vehicle robbery (carjacking) at 11:10 AM in Oak Creek, Wisconsin. The attempted motor vehicle robbery (carjacking) occurred at a gas station located at Woodman's address 8151 South Howell Avenue, Oak Creek, Wisconsin 53154 against victim J. C. (DOB: XX/XX/1964). The attempted vehicle theft occurred 165 West Aspen Court Unit 6, Oak Creek, Wisconsin 53154 against victim J. B. (DOB: XX/XX/1941). The motor vehicle robbery (carjacking) occurred in the Kohl's parking lot located at 9035 South Howell Avenue, Oak Creek, Wisconsin 53154 against victim of B.S. (DOB: XX/XX/1945). The attempted carjacking and carjacking offenses are in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2119(1) (Motor Vehicle Robbery).

7. I further submit there is probable cause to believe that on December 17, 2020, DEOVEONTA MILAN (DOB: XX/XX/2001) and TYLER engaged in the armed motor vehicle robbery (carjacking) of J.C-S. (DOB: XX/XX/1958) in the garage of 2994 South Mabbett Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53207. This offense is in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2119(1) (Motor Vehicle Robbery) and Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(c) (Use of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence).

8. I further submit there is probable cause to believe that on December 19, 2020, TYLER and MILAN, engaged in the armed motor vehicle robbery (carjacking) of D.L. (DOB: XX/XX/1947) and G.L. (DOB: XX/XX/1944) in the garage of 6633 South 19th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. This offense is in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2119(1) (Motor Vehicle Robbery) and Title 18, United States Code, Section 924(c) (Use of a Firearm During a Crime of Violence).

9. I have conducted and/or assisted with investigations of violent crime violations in conjunction with agents and officers from other jurisdictions, and have received training from these agents and officers in conducting these investigations. I have also conducted and/or assisted with investigations that have led to the arrest of persons for violations of law dealing with carjackings.

10. This affidavit is based upon my personal knowledge, my training and experience, and on information reported to me by other state and local law enforcement officers during the course of their official duties, all of whom I believe to be truthful and reliable. This affidavit is also based upon police reports, physical surveillance, and witness statements that I consider to be reliable as set forth herein. The facts of this Affidavit are based upon information obtained from my investigation, as well as information I have received from other law enforcement officers.

11. Because this affidavit is submitted for the limited purpose of a obtaining a search warrant, I have not included each and every fact known to me concerning this investigation. I have attempted to set forth only the facts that I believe are pertinent to establishing the necessary foundation for the warrant.

Red Kia Sorrento Vehicle Recovery and Arrest of MADISON TYLER and DEOVEONTA MILAN

59. On December 21, 2020, at approximately 11:16 PM, MPD located the Kia Sorrento in the area of North Sherman Boulevard and West Wright Street. MPD attempted a traffic stop of the Kia Sorrento at 2147 North Sherman Boulevard, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, however, the Kia Sorrento sped away from the MPD squad vehicle, which initiated a pursuit with the stolen vehicle. MPD deployed stop sticks, and the vehicle stopped in the area of 3459 North Dousman Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The two occupants, TYLER and MILAN, fled from the vehicle on foot. TYLER fled from driver's seat, and MILAN fled from the front passenger's seat. TYLER and MILAN were subsequently located by MPD, arrested, and taken into custody.

60. When he was arrested on December 21, 2020, TYLER was wearing a silver analog Timex watch that matched the description of the watch that was stolen from G.L. on December 19, 2020. MPD seized the watch from TYLER. G.L. identified the watch as his, and the watch was returned to G.L. Following his arrest, TYLER also made a spontaneous statement to police, stating "Y'all just arrested a kingpin." Based on training and experience, I understand the term "kingpin" to mean leader of a group. Additionally, when asked by MPD what his name was, TYLER responded, "lil dog... ct... lil dog."

MADISON TYLER Custodial Interview

61. During a custodial interview with TYLER, he confessed to driving and fleeing from police in the Kia Sorrento on December 21, 2020. TYLER admitted to knowing the Kia Sorrento was stolen, however, he denied involvement in the carjacking on December 19, 2020.

IV. FACEBOOK INFORMATION

82. Facebook owns and operates a free-access social networking website of the same name that can be accessed at <http://www.facebook.com>. Facebook allows its users to establish accounts with Facebook, and users can then use their accounts to share written news, photographs, videos, and other information with other Facebook users, and sometimes with the general public.

83. Facebook asks users to provide basic contact and personal identifying information to Facebook, either during the registration process or thereafter. This information may include the user's full name, birth date, gender, contact e-mail addresses, Facebook passwords, Facebook security questions and answers (for password retrieval), physical address (including city, state, and zip code), telephone numbers, screen names, websites, and other personal identifiers. Facebook also assigns a user identification number to each account.

84. Facebook users may join one or more groups or networks to connect and interact with other users who are members of the same group or network. Facebook assigns a group identification number to each group. A Facebook user can also connect directly with individual Facebook users by sending each user a "Friend Request." If the recipient of a "Friend Request" accepts the request, then the two users will become "Friends" for purposes of Facebook and can exchange communications or view information about each other. Each Facebook user's account includes a list of that user's "Friends" and a "News Feed," which highlights information about the user's "Friends," such as profile changes, upcoming events, and birthdays.

85. Facebook users can select different levels of privacy for the communications and information associated with their Facebook accounts. By adjusting these privacy settings, a Facebook user can make information available only to himself or herself, to particular Facebook users, or to anyone with access to the Internet, including people who are not Facebook users. A Facebook user can also create “lists” of Facebook friends to facilitate the application of these privacy settings. Facebook accounts also include other account settings that users can adjust to control, for example, the types of notifications they receive from Facebook.

86. Facebook users can create profiles that include photographs, lists of personal interests, and other information. Facebook users can also post “status” updates about their whereabouts and actions, as well as links to videos, photographs, articles, and other items available elsewhere on the Internet. Facebook users can also post information about upcoming “events,” such as social occasions, by listing the event’s time, location, host, and guest list. In addition, Facebook users can “check in” to particular locations or add their geographic locations to their Facebook posts, thereby revealing their geographic locations at particular dates and times. A particular user’s profile page also includes a “Wall,” which is a space where the user and his or her “Friends” can post messages, attachments, and links that will typically be visible to anyone who can view the user’s profile.

87. Facebook allows users to upload photos and videos, which may include any metadata such as location that the user transmitted when s/he uploaded the photo or video. It also provides users the ability to “tag” (i.e., label) other Facebook users in a photo or video. When a user is tagged in a photo or video, he or she receives a notification of the tag and a link to see the photo or video. For Facebook’s purposes, the photos and videos associated with a user’s account will include all photos and videos uploaded by that user that have not been deleted, as well as all photos and videos uploaded by any user that have that user tagged in them.

88. Facebook users can exchange private messages on Facebook with other users. These messages, which are similar to e-mail messages, are sent to the recipient’s “Inbox” on Facebook, which also stores copies of messages sent by the recipient, as well as other information.

Facebook users can also post comments on the Facebook profiles of other users or on their own profiles; such comments are typically associated with a specific posting or item on the profile. In addition, Facebook has a Chat feature that allows users to send and receive instant messages through Facebook. These chat communications are stored in the chat history for the account. Facebook also has a Video Calling feature, and although Facebook does not record the calls themselves, it does keep records of the date of each call.

89. If a Facebook user does not want to interact with another user on Facebook, the first user can “block” the second user from seeing his or her account.

90. Facebook has a “like” feature that allows users to give positive feedback or connect to particular pages. Facebook users can “like” Facebook posts or updates, as well as webpages or content on third-party (i.e., non-Facebook) websites. Facebook users can also become “fans” of particular Facebook pages.

91. Facebook has a search function that enables its users to search Facebook for keywords, usernames, or pages, among other things.

92. Each Facebook account has an activity log, which is a list of the user’s posts and other Facebook activities from the inception of the account to the present. The activity log includes stories and photos that the user has been tagged in, as well as connections made through the account, such as “liking” a Facebook page or adding someone as a friend. The activity log is visible to the user but cannot be viewed by people who visit the user’s Facebook page.

93. Facebook Notes is a blogging feature available to Facebook users, and it enables users to write and post notes or personal web logs (“blogs”), or to import their blogs from other services, such as Xanga, LiveJournal, and Blogger.

94. The Facebook Gifts feature allows users to send virtual “gifts” to their friends that appear as icons on the recipient’s profile page. Gifts cost money to purchase, and a personalized message can be attached to each gift. Facebook users can also send each other “pokes,” which are free and simply result in a notification to the recipient that he or she has been “poked” by the sender.

95. Facebook also has a Marketplace feature, which allows users to post free classified ads. Users can post items for sale, housing, jobs, and other items on the Marketplace.

96. In addition to the applications described above, Facebook also provides its users with access to thousands of other applications (“apps”) on the Facebook platform. When a Facebook user accesses or uses one of these applications, an update about that the user’s access or use of that application may appear on the user’s profile page.

97. Some Facebook pages are affiliated with groups of users, rather than one individual user. Membership in the group is monitored and regulated by the administrator or head of the group, who can invite new members and reject or accept requests by users to enter. Facebook can identify all users who are currently registered to a particular group and can identify the administrator and/or creator of the group. Facebook uses the term “Group Contact Info” to describe the contact information for the group’s creator and/or administrator, as well as a PDF of the current status of the group profile page.

98. Facebook uses the term “Neoprint” to describe an expanded view of a given user profile. The “Neoprint” for a given user can include the following information from the user’s profile: profile contact information; News Feed information; status updates; links to videos, photographs, articles, and other items; Notes; Wall postings; friend lists, including the friends’ Facebook user identification numbers; groups and networks of which the user is a member, including the groups' Facebook group identification numbers; future and past event postings; rejected "Friend" requests; comments; gifts; pokes; tags; and information about the user's access and use of Facebook applications.

99. Facebook also retains Internet Protocol ("IP") logs for a given user ID or IP address. These logs may contain information about the actions taken by the user ID or IP address on Facebook, including information about the type of action, the date and time of the action, and the user ID and IP address associated with the action. For example, if a user views a Facebook profile, that user's IP log would reflect the fact that the user viewed the profile, and would show when and from what IP address the user did so.

100. Social networking providers like Facebook typically retain additional information about their users' accounts, such as information about the length of service (including start date), the types of service utilized, and the means and source of any payments associated with the service (including any credit card or bank account number). In some cases, Facebook users may communicate directly with Facebook about issues relating to their accounts, such as technical problems, billing inquiries, or complaints from other users. Social networking providers like Facebook typically retain records about such communications, including records of contacts between the user and the provider's support services, as well as records of any actions taken by the provider or user as a result of the communications.

101. As explained herein, information stored in connection with a Facebook account may provide crucial evidence of the "who, what, why, when, where, and how" of the criminal conduct under investigation, thus enabling the United States to establish and prove each element or alternatively, to exclude the innocent from further suspicion. In my training and experience, a Facebook user's "Neoprint," IP log, stored electronic communications, and other data retained by Facebook, can indicate who has used or controlled the Facebook account. This “user attribution” evidence is analogous to the search for “indicia of occupancy” while executing a search warrant at a residence. For example, profile contact information, private messaging logs, status updates, and tagged photos (and the data associated with the foregoing, such as date and time) may be evidence of who used or controlled the Facebook account at a relevant time. Further, Facebook account activity can show how and when the account was accessed or used. For example, as described herein, Facebook logs the Internet Protocol (IP) addresses from which users access their accounts along with the time and date. By determining the physical location associated with the logged IP addresses, investigators can understand the chronological and geographic context of the account access and use relating to the crime under investigation. Such information allows investigators to understand the geographic and chronological context of Facebook access, use, and events relating to the crime under investigation. Additionally, Facebook builds geo-location into some of its services. Geo-location allows, for example, users to “tag” their location in posts and Facebook “friends” to locate each other. This geographic and timeline information may tend to either inculcate or exculpate the Facebook account owner. Last, Facebook account activity may provide relevant insight into the Facebook account owner’s state of mind as it relates to the offense under investigation. For example, information on the Facebook account may indicate the owner’s motive and intent to commit a crime (e.g., information indicating a plan to commit a crime), or consciousness of guilt (e.g., deleting account information in an effort to conceal evidence from law enforcement).

102. Therefore, the computers of Facebook are likely to contain all the material described above, including stored electronic communications and information concerning subscribers and their use of Facebook, such as account access information, transaction information, and other account information.

V. INFORMATION TO BE SEARCHED AND ITEMS TO BE SEIZED

103. I anticipate executing this warrant under the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, in particular 18 U.S.C. §§ 2703(a), 2703(b)(1)(A) and 2703(c)(1)(A), by using the warrant to require Facebook to disclose to the government copies of the records and other information (including the content of communications) particularly described in Section I of Attachment B. Upon receipt of the information described in Section I of Attachment B, government-authorized persons will review that information to locate the items described in Section II of Attachment B.

VI. CONCLUSION

104. Based on the forgoing, I request that the Court issue the proposed search warrant. This Court has jurisdiction to issue the requested warrant because it is “a court of competent jurisdiction” as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 2711. 18 U.S.C. §§ 2703(a), (b)(1)(A) & (c)(1)(A). Specifically, the Court of the Eastern District of Wisconsin is a district court of the United States that has jurisdiction over the offenses being investigated, 18 U.S.C. § 2711(3)(A)(i). Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 2703(g), the presence of a law enforcement officer is not required for the service or execution of this warrant.
